A Prayer for the Ship by Douglas Reeman - Goodreads
A Prayer for the Ship lacked the structure of the later novels and some of the dramatic tension in the characterisation. However, it was interesting to read the seeds of Reeman's later style. However, it was interesting to read the seeds of Reeman's later style.

A Prayer for The Ship was his first book based loosely on his own war time experiences. Knowing this, the book has great credibility with some many, so young risking their lives on every patrol. We live the period through the eyes of a young RNVR officer, Royce as he progresses from inexperienced novice to veteran. There is a romantic interest which adds a human, almost naive side to our young
