Airborn Kenneth Opper

Airborn is a satisfying rip-roaring adventure Opper writes with clarity and passion, particularly in his descriptions of the natural world and the world in the sky, and the plot fairly zips along, but there is also a reflective quality to his writing, and he is not afraid to tackle the issue of death.

My students need 2 copies each of 11 books and 4 copies of another to encourage them to read. Middle school students have so many challenges facing them today. If we can catch their attention with good books they can be encouraged to read and improve their literacy skills.
