PHIL RICKMAN | AUTHOR

As satisfying as a Victorian novel. The layers, the characters, the humour, the spookiness perfect. ELLY GRIFFITHS Mysteries in the classic sense cleverly combining the supernatural and criminal elements to illuminate the darkest corners of our imaginations.

Book Review: Candlelight by Phil Rickman - Steve Calvert

Candlelight is set in the fictional Welsh village of Y Groes. Surrounded by beautiful countryside and with picture-postcard views the village looks like a little slice of paradise, but there is a darker side to Y Groes and it has a closed community that offers little welcome to outsiders.

"Candlelight" proved to be an exciting and riveting read and I finished it in one day. The setting is a remote West Wales village where the very fabric of the villagers' lives are steeped in age-old superstitions.
