David Jordan James' FORSAKEN is a Christian drama that starts out thrilling and suspenseful, but turns into a character driven story about faith and the choices a person must make. Taken together the two elements don't work well together. I wish the author had been more consistent with genre.

Forsaken (Taylor Pashbury, #1) by James David Jordan Forsaken is a dynamic book with multi-faceted characters and realistic settings. Mr. Jordan has a large ensemble of characters and action, but his laid-back writing style makes this an easy read.
