Which considering the title 'Love Becomes Her' and the description on the back of (This is the first novel I've read by Donna Hill. I thought the story itself was good, however it was more about the development of a men's spa Pause, the friendship of Barbara, Stephanie, Ann Marie and Elizabeth, the men in their lives and their family dramas.

LOVE BECOMES HER is the first book in the new Kimani Romance line that this reviewer has read, and it was a very good read. If the rest of the books in this line match up to the quality of this book, this reviewer will definitely continue to read them. Barbara's story in LOVE BECOMES HER was fun and entertaining, with a lot of humor as well as drama. Ann Marie's story, SAVING ALL MY LOVING, is

LOVE BECOMES HER from the seasoned author Donna Hill is an excellent addition to her already well known

Library. I particularly enjoyed this story because it was not only about the Hero and Heroine, Barbara and Michael, but about friendship between four friends and how each would always be there for the other. LOVE BECOMES HER is an intriguing glimpse into the lives of four friends and how
