Requiem Mass (DCI Andrew Fenwick, #1) by Elizabeth Corley

Elizabeth Corley was born and brought up in West Sussex. Married with a stepdaughter, she manages to balance her crime-writing with a position as Chief Executive, Europe for a global investment company. A one-time committee member and vice-chairperson of the Crime Writers Association, she is still an active member, while finding time to pursue her outside interests of travel, gardening and music.

Requiem Mass. By: Elizabeth Corley is a new author for me and on the strength of this book I'll be down-loading more of her works. Early on I was afraid that the story would involve graphic descriptions of violence or torture, but happily that wasn't the case; the author left it to our imagination, which I prefer. The structure of the book, told mostly in the present tense, gives the
