Sarah Thornhill (2011) | Kate Grenville
Sarah Thornhill extends the story into the next generation. This is the story of the youngest child of the family at the heart of The Secret River. Although this is a sequel to the earlier book, you don't need to have read The Secret River to enjoy Sarah Thornhill; this is a stand-alone novel.

The story began in The Secret River (short-listed for the Booker Prize) with William Thornhill's deportation to New South Wales and continued in The Lieutenant with Daniel Rooke's quest to understand the foreign land he is ordered to colonize and civilize.
