Once-central characters can die without Eaves feeling the need to inform us, or reappear momentarily, as if glimpsed from the corner of the eye. The novel works as much by absences and oblique

This is Paradise by Will Eaves - Goodreads
Eaves doesn't make a big deal out of Ben's homosexuality (this is not a gay novel) and not a great deal out of Clive's autism, although he is inevitably disruptive in the lives of his siblings. Two thirds of the novel shows these boys and their sisters Will Eaves's third novel is an everyday story about a family from Bath, the Aldens, Don and Emily and their four children.

This is Paradise ebook by Will Eaves - Rakuten Kobo

This Is Paradise is an unflinching portrayal of the dynamics of family life. The Alldens are wholly recognizable and defiantly unique, close allies and closer adversaries who think they know each other. Their unforgettable story is an intimate record of survival that is tender, funny and ultimately heartbreaking.
